Pa Houa Vue is an attorney who provides legal counsel to businesses and individuals in transactional and employment matters. Additionally, she provides support for the firm's business litigation practice.

Ms. Vue devotes a substantial part of her practice to advising clients in transactions, day-to-day operational matters, and general business topics, including business formations, sales, and succession planning matters. Her practice also includes contract preparation and review, both in general matters and in matters focused on employment law issues ranging from executive compensation agreements to separation agreements.

Ms. Vue is fluent in Hmong. In her spare time, she enjoys photography and decorating cakes.
